

A few candles ... a light ... a message of PEACE
CHRISTMAS EVE ... DECEMBER 24, 2010 ... 9:30 & 11

*It was a "silent night" ... an "ordinary night" ...
and it's in our hearts forever ...
"a moment with Mike" (9:30)
"Stille Nacht" ... the choir (11:00)

Prophetic words

Isaiah 9. 2-11 "Hark the herald angels sing" 60

Isaiah 52. 7-10 "O little town of Bethlehem" 41

It was a "silent night" ... and on this nite:

THE WORD BECOMES FLESH ... and forever dwells among us.

John 1. 1-14 ... "I am so glad each Christmas Eve" 69 (9:30)
*the choir (11:00)

The song of Mary

The journey of the wisemen

Matthew 2. 1-12 "Gesù Bambino" Karri Nussle Brady

Prayers and sharing the light

"Silent Night" 65

Benediction

THE COLOR OF PEACE
Mattie Stepanek ... January, 2000

A good, colorful world is the key to

A good, colorful life.

Remember that,

without color,

The world could

Be a dull place.

Listen to your heartsong

With color in your spirit.

Then, you will be

A part of the

Harmony & peace

Kaleidoscope

That reflects our changing world.

We have a brief sharing of the Lord's Supper following the 11:00 service.

Regular worship on Sundays, December 26 and January 2 ---- 8:30 & 11.
(no Sunday School on these 2 Sundays)

*Thanks for all you have done this year ... to make Christmas "special" for a bunch of folks going through tough times.
And ... from the Borling extended family ... we can't thank you enough for all the kindnesses and goodness you share with us all year long.
