TODAY IS SUNDAY ... OCTOBER 3, 2010

Yes, love & prayer & goodness make the world go 'round!!

(and, remember ----"mum" is the word!!)

Worship at All Saints is a time to reflect, give thanks, pray ... in the quietness of this humble place.

We hope your soul is nourished, being with us today. We enjoy having kids in church ... but when they are noisy and disruptive ... we ask you please to respect the quiet and dignity --- both of your neighbor and our worship experience. We have a fine nursery for kids age 5 and under ... and our highly paid, moderately festive, and over-achieving staff is always anxious to care for your kids. Please accompany your son/daughter to the nursery and introduce yourself to the attendant. Hey --- it's fall ... and that means the coffee is extra-good ... in Charter Hall.

welcome ... maybe an announcement or two opening prayer

I begin a new day ... in the quietness of this humble place.

I look back on my week. Routine, in most ways. A simple mixture of grins and sadness. I guess life teaches me, Lord ----- never to take any moment or person or place for granted.

I assume I'll wake up tomorrow.

I know I'll go home after church.

I'll be back next week for another Sunday morning.

And along the way ... there are glimpses of why life is so precious.

The rose bush and the mum. The sunrise and harvest moon. A kid pretending his bike is an airplane. An aging veteran with his Marine-hat on.

The sound of the combine. Friday nite lights.

I need to appreciate the "moments" more ----- even the tough ones, the not-so-easy ones. It's all part of who I am.

It's me. It's my neighbor. It's life.

Your gift. My journey. Thanks for walking it with me.

Amen.
